

Green and environmentally friendly

BEILIANDE adheres to the path of green development, implements environmental protection measures, and improves the ecological environment. Adhere to the management policy of putting prevention first and achieving continuous improvement. Environmental protection is the foundation of a company's survival and an important responsibility. Based on the concept of being responsible to society and the earth, the company implements environmental management policies from the following aspects to ensure sustainable development of the enterprise.

1、 Green Environment Creation:

Protecting the environment and benefiting humanity is the responsibility and obligation of every citizen, and creating a comfortable, healthy, and clean work, leisure, and living environment is the basic philosophy of our company.

2、 Compliance with Laws and Regulations:

In reproduction activities, strict adherence to national laws and regulations, as well as industry and local environmental policies and regulations, and respect for the law and regulations are the foundation of the company's employees' behavior.

3、 Improvement of Environmental Awareness:

Company establish environmental awareness among all employees, understand and participate in environmental protection, maintain close cooperation with relevant parties, and continuously improve environmental awareness and skills among all employees

4、 Pollution Prevention Achievement:

Company establish a sound environmental management system, formulate relevant management systems, take effective measures to control the emission of noise, pollution, and waste in factories and office areas, prevent pollution, and continuously improve the environment.

5、 Energy Conservation and Consumption Reduction Promotion :

Reasonably and effectively use energy and resources such as water, electricity, and gas within the company, reduce waste, actively adopt environmentally friendly products, and promote the improvement of enterprise economic benefits with the goal of reducing consumption, reducing costs, and protecting the environment.

6、 Achieving Continuous Improvement:

Strengthen and improve the environmental management system to ensure continuous improvement of the overall environment and management system.

Shenzhen Beiliande Industrial Co., Ltd

January 10, 2023

